

Three New Companies Enter the FTSE 100 at Quarterly Index Review

London, 12th September 2007: FTSE Group confirms that Taylor Wimpey, Tullow Oil and Carphone Warehouse will all enter the FTSE 100 as a result of today's review of the FTSE UK Index Series. Moving from the FTSE 100 to the FTSE 250 are Kelda Group, Drax Group and Segro.

Entering the FTSE 250 are - Ferrexpo, Hargreaves Lansdown, New Star Asset Management, Moneysupermarket.com, 3i Infrastructure, Gem Diamonds, Eaga, Pv Crystalox Solar, Talvivaara Mining Company, and Wellstream Holdings.

The changes to the indices were approved today at the quarterly review of FTSE's UK Index series, which is carried out by the independent FTSE Europe, Middle East and Africa regional committee. The regular index reviews ensure the indices remain an accurate reflection of the market they represent - essential as they form the basis of many pension funds and investment portfolios.

The FTSE 100 reserve list will contain TUI Travel, Thomas Cook Group, First Group, London Stock Exchange, Invensys, and Ladbrokes. Reserve lists are created at each quarterly review, and contain the next six companies ranked in order of market capitalisation below the FTSE 100. Reserve list stocks are used to maintain the index at 100 companies, should that number be reduced as a result of corporate actions, such as M&A activity or delistings, between quarterly reviews.

All changes confirmed at today's review take effect from the start of trading on Monday 24th September. A complete list of all review changes approved today can be found at

About FTSE Group

FTSE Group is a world-leader in the creation and management of indexes. With offices in Beijing, London, Frankfurt, Hong Kong, Madrid, Paris, New York, San Francisco, Boston, Shanghai and Tokyo, FTSE Group services clients in 77 countries worldwide. It calculates and manages the FTSE Global Equity Index Series, which includes world-recognized indexes ranging from the FTSE All-World Index, the FTSE4Good series and the FTSEurofirst Index series, as well as domestic indexes such as the prestigious FTSE 100. The company has collaborative arrangements with the Athens, AMEX, Cyprus, Euronext, Johannesburg London, Madrid, NASDAQ and Taiwan exchanges, as well as Nomura Securities, Hang Seng and Xinhua Finance of China. FTSE also has a collaborative agreement with Dow Jones Indexes to develop a single sector classification system for global investors.

FTSE indexes are used extensively by investors world-wide for investment analysis, performance measurement, asset allocation, portfolio hedging and for creating a wide range of index tracking funds. Independent committees of senior fund managers, derivatives experts, actuaries and other experienced practitioners review all changes to the indexes to ensure that they are made objectively and without bias. Real-time FTSE indexes are calculated on systems managed by Reuters. Prices and FX rates used are supplied by Reuters.
